

A diagram showing a horizontal container with a light blue background and a black border. Inside the container, there are three sections. The first section on the left is a white rectangle with a black border containing the text "test". The second section in the middle is a white rectangle with a black border containing the text "MemoryTest". The third section on the right is a light blue area with no border containing the text "code".

test

MemoryTest

code